NEW YORK, Nov. 28.—Prior to the start of the Army-Navy football game at the Polo Grounds, Hend Coach Bob Folwell of the Naval Academy eleven was offered an extension of his contract for four years regardless of the outcome of the struggle on the gridiron. It was reported after the clash that Folwell had not given a definite answer, but that he was considering the proposition. It was also said that it was practically certain that Folwell would accept.

000 is the belief here, since the publication yesterday of a story of a court transcript which shows that Col. Ruppert holds a mortgage for $300,000 against the Boston Red Sox, former owners of the "demon swatter."

The story came through the office of Ban Johnson, head of the American League, and is based on a mortgage recorded in Suffolk County, Mass., May 25, 1920, wherein Boston is altuated, which came to him un-officially.

The mortgage covers real es-

the holdings and the franchise of the club and represents nearly 30 per cent of the $1,-200,000 which Harry France had declared was the minimum price of the club.

Baseball sharps are speculating as to how the mortgage will be regarded in the light of the provision of the American Lengue constitution, which forbids the owners of one club holding stock in another. It re-mains to be seen whether or not this provision may be construed to cover a mortgage.

RUTGERS TO LOSE

Georgetown Squad, Beaten In Last Four Starts, Must Get Out of Present Slump To Trim Fast-going West Virginians.

By R. M. HELGESEN.

Georgetown's gridiron warriors returned at an early hour this morning from the North, where they were handed the most crushing defeat of the last five seasons at the hands of Boston College, Saturday. Now, with all hope of a "success ful" season gone, the Hilltoppers tomorrow will get down to their hardest work of the year in an effort to wrest back some of their lost laurels by trimming Bethany in a post-season game here Decem-

Providing they do beat Bethany, which in the light of their playing during their last four starts is open to doubt, even then the Hilltoppers will hardly be able to look back on falling in the final quarter of the their grid season and tag it "suc- mud battle, 7 to 0.

Of Georgetown's losses this sea-son the defeat at the hands of Boston College is probably the most disheartening, not to say painful.
The first quarter of Saturday's game, according to reports, told the entire story: Victory for the Northerners. After that period the Hilltoppers lost hope of beating the conquerors of Yale. Their main object from then on was to score-and they failed miserably for the first time this season.

Four defeats in four starts, beginning with the loss to Navy and ending Saturday with their hopes shattered by Boston College, has been the Hilltoppers' portion. How ever, G. U. supporters are satisfied that the clash with Bethany next Saturday will allow a little sunshine to drift through the clouds and that they will end the season, disastrous as it has been, with a

The Middies' victory over the Cadets Saturday can be laid to two things. The superlority of Navy's line from tackle to tackle, and the ability of the Annapolis ends to the much advertised Mr. French before he got well started. The Navy line resembled nothing so much as a stone wall. At no time were the Army backs able to crash through for substantial gains Wilhide, the Cadet captain, showed more class than his running mates, including Mr. French, in hitting the

WILLIAMS ANGLING RED SOX MORTGAGE FOR YALE BATTLE

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass., Nov. 28.—A football game with Yale is a possibility for the Williams eleven next fall. Despite the fact that Capt. Boynton will be missing at that time, the Purple wants to take on one of the Big Three, if possible, and, if nother contest with Harvard fails to materialize, it is believ ed that a journey will be made to the Yale bowl. It is un-likely, however, that both Harvard and Yale will be played, for such a course would prove too strenuous for the light Will-

SPORT of KINGS Well, let's slap one more in the eye before th blowoff. Old Man Brown, the cleverest man that ever nursed a split-second watch, sends me Wodan as a special and requests that I "shoot the wad." Brownie and my advice is to string along with him today.

And old price will be a good one. Al Pierce's last effort was a hum-dinger. Wilfreda holds the balance safe. All this happens in the sixth this afternoon. Nohant, the gopher that burnt up several tons of mazuma the last time out, will just about come to life in the day's opener and perform true to form. Chinn's cast-off has not been shown up yet, but when they do "shoot" Nohant will deliver. Bar Coy and Jamaica Belle should be fighting it at the end for the balance of the purse. Explosive copped like a good one the last time out. A repeater of that effort will be good enough to grab the purse in the second. Coprose may be slightly better than ordinarily rated. Tan Son is a sleeper. Others don't call for much.
